

Criel Merino: On the number of spanning trees and acyclic orientations of a graph

We examined the following conjecture: If  $G$  is a 2-connected graph with no loops, then either the number of acyclic orientations or the number of the totally cyclic orientations of  $G$  is bigger than the number of spanning trees of  $G$ .