The Mullineux maps

Matthew Fayers

The irreducible representations of the symmetric group in characteristic p are indexed by p-regular partitions. There is a bijection from p-regular partitions to p-regular partitions called the Mullineux map, which arises from tensoring irreducible representations with the signature representation. I will introduce the Mullineux map and explore some of its properties from a combinatorial viewpoint.